

SRI AUROBINDO COLLEGE

College website hacked, being restored

Unfortunately the college website was hacked recently. As a result, we had to get it reformatted. The data that we could retrieve has been uploaded, but the same is without the latest information that was already in circulation prior to the hacking. The college is working out to recover the latest data and update the same as soon as possible. The users are requested to bear with us for the time being.

PRINCIPAL (OFFG.)