The following issues were discussed during the meeting:

1. The committee, after due discussion with the cultural committee, decided to conduct the Annual Day before the end of semester.
2. The committee spoke to the Examination Committee to resolve any concerns they might have faced during the previous exam session in the month of December and resolved the issues regarding the same.

3. The Self study report was submitted by the NAAC Team on the 09th of April,2024. However, it was brought in front of the committee that there were some DVV requirements i.e. Data Verification and Validation concerns. The committee, after a thorough discussion with the NAAC convenor, decided to create a team involving college faculties and non-teaching staff to resolve the concerns at the earliest.
4. The Committee discussed the plan of action for the next couple of weeks regarding the upcoming NAAC Visit and laid out a set of responsibilities that were to be delegated to various societies and committees for NAAC Peer Team Visit.
5. The committee decided to complete the process of permanent appointments in the remaining few departments of the college, immediately after the Election proceedings in the country.
6. The committee has also decided to conduct a week-long training session for the non-teaching staff in the coming months of June or July. The agenda of the training will be focused on the various aspects of administrative tasks.
